Subject: Colorado Springs PrideFest 2007 - Event Details - PPLFF

Hi Alma, Bob,

First and foremost, thank you once again for your support of Colorado Springs PrideFest and Pikes Peak Gay & Lesbian Community Center. Sunday, July 15th promises to the biggest and best Pride event to date, and we're thrilled you'll be joining us! Below are the details for the day's events. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me directly. On the day of the event, our team will be available to help you set up, and to answer any questions you may have.

BOOTH
Your booth space is located at J, and a map and vendor list are attached to this email for your review. You can set up anytime between 7:00am and 10:00am. Temporary parking for unloading is available at the hooded meters on Bijou, Nevada and Platte surrounding Acacia Park from 7:00am-9:00am. Our volunteer teams will be wearing yellow Miller/Miller Lite t-shirts, and our 2007 PrideFest Committee Coordinators will be dressed in Teal. Please touch base with any of our team to help you with questions, set-up and/or unloading. If you do not already have tables, tents, chairs, etc., we recommend working with AAa. They provide discounted rates to our PrideFest partners, and can be reached by calling: (719) 593-7008. After unloading, you may want to park your cars nearby. There is no charge at the downtown meters, and parking early on Sunday morning is usually plenty. Tear-down officially begins at 6:00pm, and again, our team is available to assist. If you have any additional questions about your booth space, please just let me know.

PARADE
The 17th Annual PrideFest Parade will begin at 12:00 (noon) on Sunday, July 15th. The parade begins on the corner of Cache La Poudre and Tejon, and travels straight through to Acacia Park. At the end of the route, your contingent will be asked to turn right on Platte toward Cascade. You can park anywhere along Cascade to disassemble your float. As a sponsor, your parade entry will be near the beginning of the parade, space number 17. Our parade is also organized into colors, and we will have your official color designation early next week. The parade's staging area is on Cache La Poudre between Cascade and Nevada. In order to make Colorado Springs PrideFest a safe and fun event for all involved, we ask that you check-in for line-up no later than 11:00am. Our parade coordinator is Tim Robson, and he will also be wearing a Teal shirt. He and/or any of his team (also wearing yellow Miller/Miller Lite shirts) can assist you and your team members in finding your exact location. If you have a large float, or need additional set-up time, you may arrive in the staging area as early as 9:00am. If you have any additional questions about your parade entry in the meantime, please just let me know.

NEW! Just a reminder, the 2007 PrideFest Committee has reinstated the Colorado Springs PrideFest Parade Awards!

PROMOTIONAL MATERIALS
As a reminder, you can view Colorado PrideFest 2007's promotional materials online at www.SpringsPride.org, and the 2007 Colorado Springs PrideFest Guide will be printed in the Colorado Springs Independent on Thursday, July 12th.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
In addition to the details for the day of Pride, we are pleased to have this opportunity to share with you some exciting news. First and foremost, we're excited to announce Colorado Springs PrideFest 2007 has received a letter of support from Colorado Governor Bill Ritter! This truly is a historic event for Colorado Springs PrideFest & Parade, and we're excited to share our excitement with you! We're also pleased to announce this is the second year in a row that we have sold out of vendor spots! It's going to be a great Pride!
